LEGISLATION REQUEST

To: Jeff Peters, President
North Canton City Council

Subject: Termination of Community Reinvestment Area Tax Incentive Agreement between the City of North Canton and L.T. Parker & Associates, Inc. DBA APARCO Security Systems.

Requested by:
Eric T. Bowles/Director of Permits and Development/CRA Housing Officer Date: March 15, 2015

Approved by: _____ Date: March 15, 2015
Mayor/Director of Administration

Background: The Community Reinvestment Area Tax Incentive Agreement between the City of North Canton and L.T. Parker & Associates, Inc. DBA APARCO Security Systems is out of compliance with the terms set in the CRA Agreement. Compliance of the agreement was reviewed by the 2014 TIRC and they recommended that the city modify the agreement by reducing the exemption rate to twenty-five percent and give the business another year to attempt to meet the payroll number identified in the agreement. Unfortunately, the security business was sold and the jobs and promised payroll left the community and the payroll for the new businesses/tenants is less than ten percent of the amount identified in the agreement. Permits and Development Staff met with Mr. Parker to discuss the matter and it was mutually agreed to terminate the agreement, and "claw back" one year of exempted real property taxes.

Request: City Council Terminate the CRA Agreement and request that one year of exempted real property taxes be repaid by L.T. Parker & Associates, Inc.
